Marcello Pietrocola
Mentone Insurance

22 November 2017

Marcello went above and beyond to find me the best possible insurance policy to suit my needs and budget. He guided me through all of the details and explained the jargon so that I knew exactly what I getting. With my limited knowlege in this area it took several meetings but Marcello was always obliging and patient. He is a wealth of knowlege and I would have no hesitation in recommending Mentone Insurance in the future.
