To whom it may concern,

I recently engaged Marcello Pietrocola of Mentone Insurances to supply both business and home insurance. His knowledge of these products is wide ranging, and I feel that I am getting worthwhile information and advice when it comes to selecting the correct policies.

He was able to compare a range of different offerings, and then present the most suitable for my situation. He is very easy to deal with and I would not hesitate in recommending Marcello and his company for insurance requirements.

Yours Sincerely,

Dean Lochner
Director, BondiGroup Ltd.
